

RULES KILIMASAI MARAHTON - WILDMARATHON

Kilimasai Marathon is a FULL MARATHON, HALF MARATHON and 10k distance event organized by Geo-Planet Events with Kili Footprints Treks & Safari & Makalu Adventure Travel & Tours and takes place in the spectacular setting of Kilimanjaro National Park.

It will be held on July 30st, 2024, with 650m of elevation for the marathon, 150 for the half marathon and 50 approx. for the 10k.

The departure is from Londorosi Gate, at the entrance of the Kilimanjaro Park and goes up until Shira Plateau and back for the Marathon distance.

Starts from Shira Plateau and goes down to Londorosi Gate.

The minimum age to participate is 18 years old on the day of the race. Children under 18 must bring an authorization signed by their parents or guardians.

It is not mandatory for participants to be in possession of the federative athletics license.

It will be possible to compete individually or by team / company (couples or teams up to a maximum of 5 participants), counting the time of the first 3 to enter the finish line.

Participants must bring:

- Bib provided by the organization
- Geolocator* (provided by the organization), track downloaded to the mobile or GPS watch and map. *Only in circuits with GSM coverage.

The maximum time to complete the race will be 9 hours. After that time the closing vehicle would pick up the participants.

To qualify for the trophies, participants must go through all controls within the maximum time established. The organization establishes the following CATEGORIES:

GENERAL FULL MARATHON 42K 3 First classified men / women

GENERAL HALF MARATHON 21K 3 First classified men / women

GENERAL 10K 3 First classified men / women

TEAM / COMPANY CATEGORY 1st team

*The teams may be composed of a maximum of 5 people of the same or different sex, the times will be added and the time of the last team member to enter the finish line will be taken into account. The last component may not enter more than 30' from the rest of the team.

The organization makes signaling marked with arrows and vertical signs, and the tracks are provided to all runners so that they can follow the route. The organization will have support and protection vehicles for the participants, as well as an opening, closing, ambulance, and medical service vehicle.

A diploma justifying the completion of the test will be delivered to all participants who finish and within the maximum time established.

The organization will have a clothing unloading point in case the weather conditions change. It is off the roads but there is the possibility of running into a vehicle, so caution is requested, you may be responsible for the infractions you may commit.

It is recommended that the participants arrange a private insurance.

The organization will assist participants in the event of an accident but is not responsible for accidents in which participants could be the cause or victim, nor for the expenses, debts or damages they could incur.

If necessary for just cause or force majeure, the organization reserves the right to modify the itinerary, controls, schedules, supplies, and these regulations.

If the health workers decide to withdraw a participant because they consider it necessary, the participant must abide by that decision for their safety. In the same way, the sports director has the power to withdraw a participant for unsportsmanlike conduct or sanction him for breach of regulations, skipping part of the course, etc.

Any claim will be made at the end of the race, in writing and discreetly. Wildmaraton offers experience and the goal is for all participants to enjoy and encourage fair play during the race. Any complaints, if any, should be dealt with directly with the organization and not publicly.

Registrations will be made in advance through the official pages: Wildmarathon, Worldsmarathon, Runedia or Makalu Adventure. Paying 3% of the registration as a deposit and the rest in the official website Wildmarathon.com or fully paid 100% at wildmarathon.com official webpage.

The Hope Path cause allocates a percentage of the registration deposit to aid local development and environmental conservation causes. The organization transfers directly to the organization but is not responsible for the use made of these donations, although it does ensure that they are reliable and that the contributions are directed to local help causes.

Participants must have a current passport. It will be convenient to send a copy of the passport to the organization to request authorization to the Kilimanjaro Natural Park

Dropouts:

The runners who decide to leave are OBLIGATED TO COMMUNICATE it at the telephones provided by the organization, otherwise, the search and rescue costs will be passed on to the participant.

If a meteorological event or a catastrophe occurs prior to the trip, the organization will be responsible for the return of the registrations. If this event occurs during the trip or test, the organization reserves the right to change the date, not having to return the registration fee but being able to evaluate the particular case.

Environment:

The Kilimasai MARATHON offers each participant the possibility of visiting Kilimanjaro National Park, one of the most beautiful places in Tanzania, but this is also a place with high vulnerability, so the corridor must be respectful with the environment, being STRICTLY PROHIBITED littering. outside the authorized places or causing damage to the natural environment. The organization has containers for the collection of waste in each supply area and we appreciate your use. Failure to comply with this rule may lead to the disqualification of the participant by the organization. Likewise, it is forbidden to alter the environment. Lack of sports ethics and morals, disobedience to the authorities, the security media or organizers can also be grounds for disqualification.

Image rights:

The participant, by registering, undertakes to assign the image rights to the organization for graphic and audiovisual dissemination for the exclusive use of the event, as well as the personal data required in the registration form that will be used for the communication-promotion of the event

Disclaimer

- The Kilimasai Marathon requires good physical condition and adequate training to perform the test. Registration by the runner implies for the organization that it is aware of it and that it is fully empowered to complete it, so it will be responsible for its performance and will assume the risks involved in participating in the race, freeing the organization from responsibilities. derived from accidents or incidents even with third parties, likewise, the organization will not be responsible for any loss of material suffered during the event if it were not for the justified cause of the organization.
- The participant assumes that it is her risk and account to participate in the race. The organization seeks the safest route and means but is not responsible for any external cause beyond the control of the organization.
- The participant assumes that they have the visa in conditions to travel and that they are authorized to enter the country of destination, not being able to request a refund from the organization, although it may seek some compensation.
- Enrollment in this race implies full acceptance of these regulations.